MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

AUGUST 2011

President's Message!

By Kevin Hall

Have you had enough of these triple digit temperatures yet? August is upon us and is usually the hot month. Before long the middle of September will be here and the fall season will be with us.

The next few months will be busy for WCSC. I hope you will be able to participate in some or all of the activities that will be offered to us. You are the club.

The LUAU will be on Saturday, August 20 and we will have a great time. Please refer to the calendar for the menu selection. Dress attire will be Hawaiian style shirt or at least a collared shirt. Ladies can wear Capri's, long pants or other appropriate clothing. Please no shorts at the club dinner dance. The performing band is "The Big Time Party Band" out of Pittsboro, NC and they were nominated in 2009 as the Best New Act by the Carolina Beach Music Association. An eight-piece band, I know you will enjoy their sounds and their dance music. Get your reservations in early so appropriate plans can be made.

Our reverse raffle will be on Saturday, August 27 with a grand prize of $7,500. We will be giving away a total of $12,700 during the night, not including the sideboards before the raffle starts. A $100 ticket will allow you to participate in this fun and exciting event. I encourage you to become a part of this and see the excitement as the Ladies, it looks like we are starting to pick up the pace as we enter August. A lot of activities of the Shrinette's and the club are beginning to start.

First, the Luau will be held on August 20. We have been given permission to have a cake raffle during the dinner dance. We need a few cakes to have on hand and if you can help with a cake, please contact Stephanie McDilda.

Second, the club's reverse raffle is on August 27 and there are some positions that we have been asked to help with. If you would like to help on side board sells prior to the start of the main raffle that night, please contact me. Also, if you can bring a dessert for the dinner that night, please make arrangements to have the dessert there prior to the beginning of the raffle.

Our Avon fundraiser has started and lasts only for a month until the August membership meeting. If you did not pick up your fundraiser packet and can assist in selling, please contact Stephanie McDilda, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. The concept was explained in detail at the last membership meeting.

The Amran restaurant sign ups also started at the last meeting. The club is responsible for all day on Sunday, October 23 and also will assist on Tuesday, October 18 along with other groups. If you can volunteer, contact me or the club president.

drawing nears the end. Only 194 tickets will be sold before the door opens and six more will be raffled off during the event. Don't wait and get your tickets now. For tickets please contact me or any of the elected officers.

The signups for the Amran State Fair Restaurant are now open. If you would like to volunteer for our assigned days and times, please contact me for available times. WCSC is assigned as the only group on Sunday, October 23 and there are two shifts this year, 11AM-4PM and 4PM-Close. Each shift has fifteen positions. The other day we are asked to assist with is Tuesday, October 18 along with several other groups. The restaurant takes a lot of labor to make it work, so I hope you will help where needed.

Reserve your calendar on Saturday, October 29 for a new type of event coming to WCSC. Our 1st Vice President Butch Fussell has been coordinating a dinner theater and the club has approved to bring in a local theater troupe to have a "murder mystery" style production. Tickets have been set at $50 per person and we are looking at 130 available seats. This will include a buffet style dinner. I am really looking forward to this event and I hope you will make plans to attend. More information will be forthcoming.

Per the By-Laws, I have appointed Nobles Thomas Stephenson, Sr. and Nelson Henthorne as the Nomination Committee to search out candidates for the ensuring year. They will be looking for candidates for both the officer line and the Board of Directors. If you would like to serve your club, please notify either of these Nobles your intention to serve. If you have a potential name for nomination, notify the committee and they will proceed with it. They will report back at the October membership meeting with a slate of officers to be included on the ballot for the November elections.

The Amran Fall Ceremonial will be held at WCSC on November 4-5. Details are in the making now. As Nobles, it is our responsibility to reach out to our lodges and invite our Masonic brethren to become Shriners. Let's make this a huge success and increase our own membership in the club. All of us are on the membership committee. Just ask brother to join.

The membership directory is going to print this month. It will be ready by the end of the month and will include the latest By-Laws and Rules & Regulations that were recently approved.

In the faith,

Kevin C. Hall
President

Performing at Wake County Shrine Club Luau Dinner Dance

The BigTime Party Band, born in 2003, has quickly become one of the hottest bands in the Southeast. Playing traditional beach music, motown, rhythm and blues, southern and classic rock and a wide and pleasing variety of party favorites in clubs, community festivals, weddings and many corporate events, BigTime has moved to the forefront of both live and recorded bands in the region.

BigTime has enjoyed three (3) songs achieving Top 10 status on 94.9 FM The Surf's (Myrtle Beach, S.C.) beach music charts, with one going all the way to #1 and another to #4. This breakout recording and performing group has quickly solidified its position as one of the most requested in the area.

Signed by the south's premier label Ripete / KHP Music three years ago, BigTime regularly releases significant new music, with three such performances in April 2008 on a "gospel shag" compilation entitled, "Swoop Down Jesus" Volume 2, to go along with two other compilation CD's, "I Could Have Danced All Night" Volume 2, and "This Is It, Carolina's Calling Me", which were released in 2006 and 2007 respectively. In March of 2009, they released their long awaited 12 song CD, "Footprints In The Sand" which includes several excellent original tunes along with some great classics.

BigTime's very successful "Drink Up" shag dance and party anthem, along with their "Do Ya' Like", were recently inducted into The Surf 94.9 FM Hall Of Fame, indicating their elevation there to Beach Music classic status!

With eight (8) active performers, BigTime displays vocal range and strength many other bands cannot easily match. Running the entire gamut from the tenor voices of John Wilson, an energetic and charismatic front man and secondary guitar player, and Johnny Wilson the operations manager, founder & vocalist, the falsetto of ace keyboardist Bill Hancock, to the mellow stylings of Tiff Wheeler Hancock, herself a standout hit making performer, they personalize each song, impress you with their differences, yet wow you with their harmonious blend.

Add to this the skill and enthusiasm of Barry Briggs on guitar and vocals, the experience and precision of drummer Ernie Pryce, the solid drive of Todd Yanez on bass guitar, the exciting and mellow sounds of Craig Cottrell on sax and the technical expertise of sound engineer Lynn Hoffman. Again, wow!

Together they are the BigTime Party Band, always bringing the party to you!

Get your reservations in early so you don't miss out on the festivities.

Masonic History of THE FORGET-ME-NOT in Germany. DAS VERGISSMEINNICHT

It all started back in the year 1933, when Adolph Hitler declared that all secret organizations were harmful to his plan for world conquest. Not only were the Jews and Catholics murdered, but also ordered the Masonic hatchet man to conduct the bloody purge that was to come.

At the time, there were 85,000 Masons of good standing in Germany. Eichmann secretly issued strict orders that every single one of them would be put to death. Needless to say his orders were carried out and 80,000 Masons met an untimely death. The other 5,000 German Masons, for some reason had not had their names on the books of the Grand Lodge, and their lives were spared. That was only because Eichmann did not know who they were.

Immediately the remaining 5,000 went underground. They hid all of their Masonic records and also stopped wearing Masonic rings and pins.

They adopted a little flower, the Forget-Me-Not. Therefore they communicated in this way without the Nazi's ever finding out. Ironically, this was Hitler's favorite flower and was impressed that men would wear this symbol as a tribute to him!

Eichmann never found out the true meaning of this pretty little flower called the Forget-Me-Not. This symbol of Freemasonry is still used in Germany in memory of those who were murdered trying to live up to the teachings of the Masonic Order.

This certainly was a real tragedy, and from all documents and accounts, this story is true.

As early as the year 1934, soon after Hitler's rise to power, it became apparent Freemasonry was in danger. In the same year, the German Grand Lodge of the Sun in Bayreuth (one of the pre-war German Grand Lodges), realized the imminent problems facing them and elected to wear a little blue flower, the Forget-Me-Not, in lieu of the traditional Square and Compasses, as a mark of identity for Masons.

It was felt the new symbol would not attract attention from the Nazis, who were in the process of confiscating and appropriating Masonic Lodges and property. Masonry had gone underground and it was necessary that the Brethren have some readily recognizable means of identification. Throughout the entire Nazi era, a little blue flower in the lapel marked a Brother.

In the Concentration Camps and in the cities a little blue Forget-Me-Not, distinguished the lapels of those who refused to allow the light of Masonry to be extinguished.

In 1947, when the Grand Lodge of the sun was reopened in Bayreuth by Past Grand Master Beyer, a little Blue pin in the shape of a Forget-Me-Not, was proposed and adopted as the official emblem of the first Annual convention of those who survived the bitter years of semi-darkness, bringing the Light of Masonry once again in the Temple.

At the Annual Convent of the United Grand Lodge of Germany, A.F.&A.M., in 1948, the pin was adopted work under adverse conditions. At the Grand Master's Conference in the United States, Dr. Theodor Vogel, the Grand Master of the newly-formed UGL, A.F.&A.M. presented one of the pins to each of the representatives of the Grand Jurisdictions with which the UGL, A.F.&A.M. enjoyed Fraternal relations.

Thus did a simple flower blossom forth into a meaningful emblem of the Fraternity and become perhaps the most widely worn pin among Freemasons in Germany, Most German Lodges present this pin and it's history to their newly raised Master Masons.

Many members of National Sjouers, Inc. have served in the U.S. Armed Forces in Germany and have learned to love and respect DAS VERGISSMEINNICHT and what it stands for.

WHO WAS HIRAM, KING OF TYRE?

Our Masonic tradition tells us that our Craft had three original Grand Masters. The first of these, Solomon, the King of Israel, figures prominently in our Masonic story and is still known as a great personage thirty centuries after his time. The third of this trio is the centre and Source of our deepest teaching and to him all Masons are bound by a unique tie. But the second of our Grand Masters has only a passing reference in our Ritual and outside of a Masonic Lodge is known only to a few specialists in history. Hiram of Tyre was a monarch who ruled over a powerful kingdom at the peak of his greatness. He and his people deserve to be known better by the Masonic Fraternity. The kingdom of Tyre or Phoenicia, as it was more generally known, was located on the eastern shores of the Mediterranean north of Palestine [ 1 ]. Its principal city was the seaport of Tyre, which, because of its geographical location, became a converging point of the great trade routes. Tyre became one of the foremost commercial centres of the ancient world and grew rich and powerful.

Phoenicia has just two claims to high achievement. In the first place the Phoenicians were among the first known sailors of the world. It is said they were the first to navigate upon the open sea and to chart their course by means of the stars. Thus to the men of Tyre goes the distinction of being the fathers of modern navigation. They must have been an alert and venturesome race. It is known that Phoenician sailors traveled all over the Mediterranean - sailed through the Straits of Gibraltar, down the coast of Africa, up the coast of Spain and even as far as England. If we wish to romanticize history a little we can see in our mind's eye a sea captain of Hiram of Tyre sailing through the Pillars of Hercules and gazing out upon a vast ocean - not knowing that 3,000 miles beyond his sight lay a land where 3,000 years later the name of his Royal Master would be perpetuated in Masonic Lodges.

As the Phoenicians went about the Mediterranean they founded colonies in various places, the most famous of which was Carthage on the northern coast of Africa. Carthage flourished, and as the parent Tyre began to decline, Carthage carried on the Phoenician tradition. It came into conflict with the rising power of Rome, and after years of furious struggles, known as the Punic Wars, Rome was triumphant and Carthage was destroyed. But Carthage also prevailed -her general Hannibal, one of the great military commanders of all time, took an army across northern Africa, through Spain and southern France, over the Alps and down to the very gates of Rome before he was stopped. It is interesting to speculate that if Carthage had conquered Rome, our civilization, which so largely bears the imprint of Rome, might instead have been influenced by the people of Hiram of Tyre.

In the second place, the Phoenicians may claim to a high place in the history of mankind because, they were the inventors of the first known alphabets We take the alphabet so much for granted that it is hard for us to conceive of a time when it did not exist. Hiram's people were certainly possessed of intellectual curiosity and skill to formulate a way whereby the thoughts of men could be transmitted through other than oral mean&. The Phoenician alphabet influenced the Greek, and the Greek the Roman. In reading these lines you are bearing a certain mute testimony to the genius of the people over whom our second Grand Master ruled.

Solomon's name and fame are still remembered today while that of his neighbor to the North has largely been forgotten. Solomon was fortunate in having adequate chroniclers (himself included) which Hiram lacked. Solomon did not equal Hiram in wealth and worldly power, but he did surpass him in the greater and more enduring values of wisdom and of the spirit.

King Hiram of Tyre has been saved from complete oblivion in the dusty tombs of history and is remembered by Freemasons because he gave freely of his resources to aid and assist a neighbor in a great and important undertaking.
